Sequence #1:

Opener #1:

Welcome to Lamar County Primary’s First Grade and Drama Club Performance of “The Christmas Penguins”.

Opener #2:

There is not much known about the Christmas Penguins. They appeared in the South Pole on that fateful night when Santa Claus crashed his sleigh.. Where they came from and where they went no one knows. Let’s take a look into the night the penguins saved Christmas.

Sequence #2:

Narrator:

The north pole was a buzz of excitement as the sleigh was being piled high with gifts. Everybody wanted a sleigh ride.

Sequence #3:

Song: “Everybody’s Going on a Sleigh Ride” (Have Elfis and the Elfette Dancers play guitar and dance, elves decorating the trees, and elves putting gifts onto a sleigh!) (Prop: Will need a sleigh of sorts)

Directed by: Hester Washington

Dance Choreographer: Haley Turner

Sequence #4:

Narrator:

No one thought that everybody going on a sleigh ride would make the sleigh too heavy. After 50 house stops with cookies on every plate the sleigh was way too heavy. The sleigh flew into the air until the sleigh suspension gave out.

Sequence #5: Sleigh Crash Dialogue: or video with sound recording of the voices of the reindeer.

Reindeer #1: Oh no!

Reindeer #2: The sleigh is too heavy!

Reindeer #3: It’s going down!

Reindeer #4: Ahh! What are we going to do?

Reindeer #5: May Day! May day!

Reindeer #6: Santa’s sleigh is going down!

Reindeer #7: Send back up!

Reindeer #8: May Day! May Day!

Sequence 6: Narrator

Narrator: Unaware of what was happening in the skies. The penguins were doing their nightly exercise.

Sequence #7

Song: “Freeze”

Directed by: Hester Washington

Dance Choreographer: Haley Turner

Sequence #8: Video of News Reporter.

News Reporter: This just in. We have just learned that Santa Claus has gone missing. His sleigh and reindeer went down at the South Pole. We call on the Mission Possible Penguins to help find him!

Show Mission Possible Logo with Mission 5 music excerpt

Sequence #9:

Narrator:

The Mission Possible Penguins heard the news and were excited to help! Finally, their turn at a Christmas Production was at hand!

Sequence #10:

Penguin #1: Finally, we get some action y'all

Penguin #2: This is our time. Let's go help!

Penguin #3: Yeah!

Penguin #4: Let's go!

Penguin #5: Let's slide, glide, and show our penguin pride!

All Penguins: It's Mission Possible Penguins to the Rescue!

Sequence #11:

Music: The Incredible Mission

Sequence #12 Penguin/Santa Dialogue

Penguin #1: I see him!

Penguin #2: Let's Help Him!

Penguin #3: Santa!

Penguin #4: Wake Up!!

Penguin #5: Does he need mouth to mouth?

Santa: Oh My Head! (holds head)

Penguin #4: Are you ok, Santa?

Santa: Where Am I? Who Am I?

Penguin #3: You are at the South Pole.

Santa: How are you going to take care of me?

Penguin #5: We are going to nurse you back to elf. (laughs)

Sequence #13 Narrator

Narrator: The Penguins were surprised to see that Santa had lost his memory. They had to come up with a plan of action to help Santa remember. They visited the Emperor Penguin for help.

Sequence #14 Penguin/Emperor Dialogue

(Walks over to Emperor Penguin) (Star Wars Music Plays: Emperor's march, etc)

All Penguins: You're majesty. (all bow)

Emperor: Greetings, my fine Penguins. How can I help you?

Penguin #3: This is Santa Claus, and he had a crash on his sleigh.

Penguin #4: He has lost his memory. How can we help him get his memory back?

Emperor: Ah! The good book says that laughter is a good medicine. Try making him laugh.

Directed by: Hester Washington

Dance Choreographer: Haley Turner

Penguin #5: I have a joke for you. What Christmas carol do parents like best? Silent Night! (laughs)

Emperor: That’s a good one. Try another.

Penguin #2: What does Santa eat for breakfast?

Penguin #1: I don’t know. What?

Penguin #2: Frosted Flakes.

Sequence #15 Narrator

Narrator: The penguins always loved a good excuse for a party. They talked with everyone, and everyone agreed to help Santa. The only problem was that they had never been to the North Pole so all the things they did seemed out of place for them.

(All meet in a huddle and whisper)

ALL SAY: It’s Snowtime!

Sequence # 16:

Song: Showtime Excerpt or showtime video!

Sequence #17: Group 1

Group 1:

‘Twas the night before Christmas, His Memory Lost when Santa hurt his head

Penguins must help him remember to know who he is instead.

Sequence # 18:

Showtime Penguin #1 (Not Possible Penguin)

Remember Santa, your first date with Ms. Claus.

Showtime Penguin #2:

You walked down Candy Cane Lane.

Song: Candy Cane Lane (Dance Number)

Sequence #19: Group 2

Group 2:

Candy canes were hung on the trees until the penguins saw them swaying in the breeze.

Sequence #20:

Song: Baby Christmas Tree

Sequence #21:

Group 3:

The trees were nestled all snug in their beds;
While visions of sugar-plums danced in their heads.

Sequence # 22

Song: Sugar Plum Dancing

(Has a Solo)

Directed by: Hester Washington

Dance Choreographer: Haley Turner

Sequence #23:

Group 4:

After the sugar plums’ dance the reindeer wanted
Their turn to prance.

Sequence #24:

Song: “Hip Hop Reindeer”

Sequence #25:

Group 5:

The elves wanted a chance to strut their stuff
They and Elfis would be enough

Sequence #26 :

Song: Groovin Elf

*(Santa starts to move his arms, feet, and legs like his body is waking up.
Then he gets up and starts to dance with the elves).*

Sequence #27:

Narrator:

As Santa danced with the elves he fell on his head.

Everyone thought “oh no, is he dead?”

Then everyone knew what they must do to help bring him through.

Sequence #28:

Here comes Santa Claus instrumental music

Sequence #29: Santa Claus Poem

SANTA CLAUS POEM

(Speakers stand in a line and hold a sign.. Pass a microphone down the line after each person says his/her letter)

S: stands for stockings we hang up so high.

A: is for all we get if we don't cry.

N: is for nobody he will pass by/

T: is for tomorrow, the day we eat pie.

A: stands for at last Old Santa is nigh.

C: is for children who love him so well

L: is the little girl, his name she can spell

A: stands for apples so rosy and red

U: is for us as we wait for his sled.

S: stands for Santa Claus, who comes in the night when we are tucked up in bed with our eyes closed so tight.

Sequence #30:

Narrator:

As the letters were read Santa awoke from his dread

He said, " I must be on my way with my reindeer and sleigh!"

"I must slay the night, And put the presents just right."

"But before I go I want the chance to share my dance"

Sequence #31

Song: "Santa Claus Rock"

Sequence #32: Bow Music (Instrumental Music)
